About the new NAUMD Surplus Products Buyers Guide:

As they say – one man’s trash is another’s gold! This inaugural edition of the NAUMD Surplus Products Buyers Guide has been designed to offer an industry-wide “classified ad” newsletter for members to offer others their unsold products! The newsletter is circulated to all NAUMD members and on the website to the industry at large! While the members listing the items have not been able sell them – YOUR customers may have a need for them. NAUMD provides these classified ads as an NAUMD Member service! It is our hope that you will add some direct profits to your bottom line by either selling or buying these goods!

How to use this Buyers Guide:

The items listed here are offered for sale by NAUMD member companies. To purchase, or to inquire about any of these items, please contact the member company contact directly. Contact information is included above each listing. Any and all pricing is strictly between the purchaser and the seller. All details of the sale, shipping and or delivery is also between the buyer and seller only. All sales are final and non-returnable unless otherwise specified by the selling company in writing.

NAUMD is held harmless for the quality, delivery or any & all issues which may result from sales or products listed herein. NAUMD cannot be responsible for the delivery, condition or damages of actual product or the shipping of such product.

GOOD LUCK and hope you buy and sell with profits!
